St. James's, November 12.

THIS Evening the Baron Ducker, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Biſhop of Munſter and Paderburn (being introduced by the Right Honourable Mr. Secretary Boyle, and conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies) had his private Audience of Leave of her Majeſty.

St. James's, November 13. This Evening Count Sanſeverino, Envoy-Extraordinary from the Duke of Parma, (being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Sunderland, and Conducted by Sir Charles Cottrell, Maſter of the Ceremonies,) had his private Audience of Leave of her Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity, Founded by Queen Elizabeth near Dublin; was tranſmitted from Ireland, and preſented to her Majeſty by his Excellency the Earl of Wharton, Lord-Lieutenant of that Kingdom.

Which Addreſs her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

Milan, November 2. N. S. An Order of the Court of Spain hath been publiſhed in this City, whereby all thoſe who have obtained any Grants or Penſions of his Catholick Majeſty ſince his Acceſſion to the Throne, are required to pay him the Income of their Revenues for one Year, to ſupply the preſent Exigencies of State. General Zamjungen being returned from the Court of Vienna with the Repartition of the Winter Quarters for the Imperial Forces in Italy, the Troops begin to retire from Piedmont, and are marching toward their reſpective Garriſons. Bridges have been laid over the River Seſia to facilitate their March, and fifty thouſand Piſtoles have been remitted to General Thaun to pay their Arrears. A great part of theſe Troops will be Quartered in this Dutchy, and the reſt will be diſpoſed in the Neighbouring State. The Biſhop of the five Churches continues at Chignolo, a Country Seat near this Place, but it is believed he will ſpeedily ſet out for Genoa. The Marquis de Prié hath tranſmitted his Catholick Majeſty's Orders to this City, to renew the Commerce with the Territories under the Pope's Juriſdiction, and to take off the Sequeſtration of the Eccleſiaſtical Revenues. Letters from Leghorn ſay, that a Dutch Privateer had brought in there a French Merchant-man bound for Marſeilles, being richly laden from Cyprus and Alexandria; and that an Engliſh Veſſel had taken two French Ships, one laden with Corn, and found in the other a great Sum of Mony which was to be laid out in that Commodity. The laſt Advices from Barcelona ſay, that Count Raphael Nabot, a Native of Catalonia, had entirely defeated a Body of the Enemy near Lerida, conſiſting of fifteen hundred Men, and had taken ſeveral Priſoners. The Troops in the Service of the Duke of Anjou have not received any Pay during the laſt four Months; they have alſo ſuffered very much by the late Inundation of the Segra, ſeveral of thoſe who eſcaped the Waters being ſtarved to Death by Cold and Hunger on the Mountains.

Berne, November 6. N. S. The Abbot of St. Gall having been informed of the Reſolutions taken by the Inhabitants of Tockenbourg, to oppoſe his Meaſures; and that they had received Aſſurances of the utmoſt Aſſiſtance from this Canton, and that of Zurich, in defence of their Privileges; he hath ordered that his Troops retire from the Caſtles, and that all the Ammunition and Proviſions which had been laid up in them ſhould be conveyed out of the County. Theſe Proceedings have obliged the Inhabitants to recall the Troops which they had poſted in the Avenues of thoſe Caſtles, and in ſeveral Places on the Frontiers. The Diet aſſembled at Baden will ſhortly conclude their Seſſion; to which none of the Roman Catholick Cantons have ſent their Deputies, except that of Soleure. The others of that Faith have ordered their reſpective Commiſſioners to meet at Lucerne; but the Subject of their Conferences is kept ſecret. The Diet of Baden have laboured with great Application to accompliſh thoſe Matters for which they were aſſembled, and have determined to recall the Deputation ſent to Baſil by the Helvetick Body, as alſo the Troops which have been poſted on the Frontiers. However they deſign to continue Watchmen at their Stations about the Beacons, that an Alarm may be immediately ſpread over the Country, if Occaſion ſhall require. The Ambaſſador of the King of France abſenting himſelf from this Diet, they have reſolved to ſend ſome Deputies to deſire him to declare his Maſter's Pleaſure concerning the Continuation of the Neutrality concluded between them and France in the Year 1702, and to countermand the Orders whereby the Subjects of his moſt Chriſtian Majeſty pretend to ſeize the Revenues in Alſatia, belonging to the Canton of Baſil. The Officers of the Popiſh Cantons, which are in the French Service, are continually complaining of the Neceſſities they labour under for want of Pay. The laſt Advices from Turin ſay, that Count Thaun had regulated the Repartition of the Winter Quarters for the Imperial Forces in Italy, and that he deſigned to viſit the new Fortifications of Suſa, and ſeveral other Places on the Frontiers; after which he will return to Milan, and from thence it is ſuppoſed he will ſet out again for the Court of Vienna, in order to give his Imperial Majeſty an Account of the laſt Campaign, and to receive new Inſtructions for the Operations of the enſuing Year. Letters from Geneva ſay, that ſuch large Quantities of Snow were fallen on the Alps, that the French Forces have been obliged to retire into the Plains, and march into Winter Quarters.

Bruſſels, November 14. N. S. Great numbers of Pioneers are employed in Fortifying Hall, Soignies, and ſome other open Towns, for the Security of the Imperial Troops which are Quartered in thoſe Places; and large Convoys of Ammunition and Proviſions have paſſed through this Place for Mons. The Earl of Albemarle is to Command in Flanders during the Winter, and under him Lieutenant-General Murray, and Major-General Chanclos. We are adviſed from the Frontiers, that the Enemy continue, with great Application, to work on their new Lines near Maubeuge.

Plimouth, November 11. On the ninth Inſtant came in the St. Albans from Cruizing, ſhe hath retaken and brought in the Endeavour Tranſport bound to Briſtol, the Biddiford Merchant, with Salt from Lisbon, and the Mary and Elizabeth of Tingmouth for Wales, which were under Convoy of the Southampton. The ſame Day arrived the Plimouth Merchant of Plimouth from Barbadoes, bound for London. Yeſterday came
